The Art of Tea is a well-established and proudly Tasmanian small business located in Kingston. See our About Us for details.

We are currently a tea-m of 8 and looking for 2 new people to join our busy business as we enter the peak period October-February. The warehouse position will be ongoing but the sales role may conclude in February.

Our 6 Core Business Values guide everything we do in this business. As such all Tea-m members must hold some (if not all!) of these values as their own too. This is the most critical of selection criteria for working at the Art of Tea (See our Vision and Values Statement)

If you LOVE TEA and talking about health then please consider how you would fit with our current loyal, dedicated, hardworking, friendly, caring and tea loving Tea-m. The vacancies are for experienced, motivated, value driven, responsible, efficient, self-starting, detail orientated, forward thinking people.

We love our brand and potential, we want you to love that as well!

Given the super busy season is just a week away we are only considering experienced, efficient, hard working people at this time. We will provide specific in-house training. Product manufacturing/packaging/despatch/order processing and/or sales experience is essential. The sales person must also have a broad knowledge of tea/herbal infusions and health benefits.
